

CECILIA in OCEANO

Road to Mini Transat 2025

CECILIA ZORZI

Cecilia was born in Trento in 1994. She approached sailing at the age of six, starting a journey that gave excellent results already in the youth classes (two worlds podiums and one Europeans). Pursuing the Olympic dream, in 2017 she began her campaign with Lorenzo Bressani on the "flying" catamaran, the Nacra 17 full foiling. The following year she joined the national team thanks to the sixth place achieved at the European Championship.

At the end of the campaign, Cecilia decided to devote herself to offshore sailing. At first she trained in France on the Figaro 3, and then competed mostly in the Mediterranean Sea where she won the World Championship in 2022, and became European champion twice.

In 2023 she was called to helm the Italian-Austrian VO65 during the Sprint Cup of the Ocean Race, finishing in third place. In the same year she began building Eki, her Mini 6.50.

MORE THAN SAILING THE SKIPPER

Born and raised in a sporty family, Cecilia approached many disciplines, developing the necessary skills to cross the ocean alone.

MINI TRANSAT

THE RACE

The Mini Transat was created in 1977 by Bob Salmon, who wanted a regatta close to the spirit of the first Atlantic crossings. Since then, every two years, dozens of skippers leave the French coasts to reach the Caribbean.

Due to its characteristics, the event is now considered a true school of ocean sailing: a solo crossing, without external assistance or contact with the land, on a boat of only 6 meters and a half!

THE BOAT MINI 6.50

The Mini 6.50 class is divided into two categories: Prototypes and Production boats. Unlike the "Proto", the production boats have very restrictive rules that keep boats' performance similar. Cecilia wants to compete in this category, where the skippers and their skills make the difference.

No computers or cartographic GPS are allowed on board, thus excluding the use of routing and weather analysis softwares. The sailors' meteorological and charts knowledge is therefore of fundamental importance.

THE GOAL FOR 2025

MORE THAN SPORT

TALENT HAS NO GENDER

Cecilia believes that this project's meaning goes beyond sport performance. She wants to fight gender gap and show that talent has no gender. Everyone should be free to dream what they want regardless of the gender they feel they belong to, this is why Cecilia wants to tell and share her adventure.
